Mott Community College Library

www.library.mcc.edu
(810) 762-0411 Reference desk
(810) 762-0401 Circulation desk
library@mcc.edu

History 155 - History of the United States 1877 to present

Online Resources: Use the databases to locate articles from magazines, journals, newspapers, reference books and entire ebooks.

- Choose "Online Resources" Note: when accessing from off campus, users will be prompted to enter the 14 digit number, above the barcode on the front of their Mott ID card.

JSTOR: Full Text Scholarly Journals - JSTOR's search engine allows users to browse and search individual journals, or perform cross-disciplinary searches of multiple journals in multiple disciplines. There are over 50 journals from the field of history available in full-text on JSTOR.

InfoTrac U.S. History Collection (found within Thomson Gale PowerSearch) – This collection of over 40 history journals provides a great overview of historical events in the United States of America.

Academic OneFile (found within Thomson Gale PowerSearch) - Content includes more than 11,000 periodical titles in all with nearly 30 years of coverage.

Wilson Select Plus (found within OCLC FirstSearch) – The database contains full full-text articles from academic journals and trade publications.

Library Catalog: The catalog locates books in the Mott College Library and other libraries.

- Choose "Library Catalog" Note: books in the Mott College Library will have the Mott apple tree icon next to the title. You can request books from Baker or Kettering using the "Request Item" link.

MeLCat: MeLCat locates books in the collections of over 100 Michigan libraries and allows users to have the books sent to the Mott College Library.

- Choose "Michigan eLibrary/mel.org" icon.
- Choose "MeLCat".

Reference Books:
Dictionary of American History
Reference E 174 .D52
Dictionary of American Biography
Reference E 176 .D55