

Get Creative!

Express Yourself!

Discover Hidden Talent
at the
Mott Community College
Creative Expression Camp

MCC's Creative Expression Camp will give campers an opportunity to explore their creative side with a variety of writing activities for youth at all skill levels. Instruction will be provided by Mott Community College faculty and students. Supplies, equipments, and snacks will be provided.

Camp Sessions include:

- Personal narratives
- Write your own ghost story
 - Make a speech
- Create poetry from a visual image

Open to Students in Grades 4 - 8
Parents, guardians, trusted adults are welcome to attend all sessions

Location: Mott Memorial Building Auditorium and Classrooms in the Curtice-Mott Complex on the Mott Community College Main Campus, 1401 East Court St., Flint

Camp Session Dates: July 22-24
8:30 a.m. to Noon

A special presentation for students to showcase their projects is scheduled 4-6 pm on July 24 at the Gorman Auditorium.

For more information about the MCC Creative Expression Camp or to register, call: MCC Humanities Division at (810) 762-0470 or Jackie Knoll at (989) 948-1752