Online Resources: Use these databases to locate articles from magazines, journals, newspapers, reference books and entire ebooks.

- Choose “Online Resources” Note: when accessing from off campus, users will be prompted to enter the 14 digit number, above the barcode on the front of their Mott ID card.

CINAHL (Cumulative Index to Nursing and Allied Health Literature) - Indexes articles from several hundred nursing, allied health and consumer health sources. You can limit your search to “full text” when you click the “Full Text” box.

Nursing and Allied Health Collection (found within Thomson Gale Power Search) - This multi-source database provides access to full-text nursing, medical and allied health journals, consumer health magazines, topical overviews and reference books.

MEDLINE (found within OCLC First Search) - MEDLINE provides indexing and abstracting to over 10,000 nursing and allied health journals. You can limit your search to journals that can be found in the Mott College Library.

Gale Virtual Reference Library - Gale Virtual Reference Library is a database of encyclopedias, almanacs, and specialized reference sources.

Library Catalog: The catalog locates books in the Mott College Library and other libraries.

- Choose “Library Catalog” Note: books in the Mott College Library will have the Mott apple tree icon next to the title. You can request books from Baker or Kettering using the “Request Item” link.

MeLCat: MeLCat allows users to locate books in the collections of over 100 Michigan libraries and have the books sent to the Mott College Library.

- Choose “Michigan eLibrary/mel.org” icon.
- Choose “MeLCat”.
