

Graphic Design

Associate in Applied Science
Fine Arts & Social Science

Office: Mott Memorial Building 2005

Phone: (810) 762-0332

Students will be prepared both creatively and technically for a wide range of design fields under the general area of visual communications. Depending upon their program options, subjects include: design for print, web, multimedia, motion and media graphics, corporate identity, advertising, editorial, promotional design and illustration. In addition to regular coursework, all students are required to enroll in a three-credit internship where they will find placement with a host employer involved in the planning, creation and implementation of graphic design.

NOTES:

1. PORTFOLIO REVIEW/SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATION:

Prior to enrolling in any 200-level Graphic Design courses, students must have achieved an overall GPA of at least 2.5 in studio art courses. Students must also submit a Supplemental Application to the Program Coordinator in Graphic Design. Students must have completed ART. 141, 131, 132, 145 and 146, 121 and ENGL 101. Their Supplemental Application includes a request for a Portfolio Review and a written essay. In the portfolio, students must show proficiency in ART. 141, 131, 132, 145 and 146 to a committee of at least three Art/Design faculty and the Graphic Design Program Coordinator who will review the student's portfolio based upon a variety of criteria including, but not limited to, Technical mastery, Creative/Conceptual applications, Color and Composition and Presentation. The essay submitted by the student must be at least two pages (12 pt/double-spaced, Times Roman, 1-inch margins all around, plus cover) and discuss the student's goals and objectives in their career or further education and their response to the creative process in visual communications.

2. APPLICATION FOR GRADUATION PORTFOLIO REVIEW:

Students who are nearly ready to graduate and who are in the process of taking ART. 246 - Self-Promotion & Portfolio Design will undergo a final departmental portfolio review as part of their course and graduation requirements. By week 14, the student must make a formal portfolio presentation for evaluation.
