General Information

- What is Upward Bound?
 - Upward Bound is a college preparation program funded by the U.S. Department of Education designed to encourage students from low-income families and whose parents did not graduate from a four-year college to further their education beyond high school.
- Who is Eligible?
 - The Upward Bound staff selects 9th and 10th grade students based upon the recommendations of teachers, counselors, social service agencies and others who are acquainted with them. Upward Bound chooses those students with academic potential who need the opportunity to demonstrate their talent. Students must be attending or planning to attend one of the following High Schools: Central, Northern, Southwestern, Northwestern, Beecher or Westwood Heights. They also must be low income and/or first generation as defined by the Department of Education.
- How can it help me?
 - Upward Bound gives the high school student a chance to find out what college life is all about and helps the student develop those skills necessary to succeed in college. The program emphasizes reading, writing, math and science skills along with tutoring in the student's present curriculum. Personal, career and academic counseling are also provided.
- What do you do in Upward Bound?
 - During the summer, Upward Bound students attend classes at Mott Community College for six weeks and participate in a variety of academic, social and cultural activities, which include a 3-day college with dorm experience. During their regular school year, Upward Bound students are in contact with Upward Bound staff members including teachers, counselors and tutors through classes, home visits, counseling sessions and tutorials.
- Is there any cost involved?
 - Upward Bound students receive a monthly stipend for participation and all programs services are cost free to participants.

More Information can be obtained by calling Upward Bound at (810) 762-5117 or on the web at www.mcc.edu/upward/up_index.shtml.
