Developmental Education Steering Committee 3-Year Expiration of Placement Test Scores

All students' test scores (Accuplacer, ACT, SAT) will expire after three years. Students who have not successfully completed foundational courses in Reading, Writing, and/or Mathematics will be required to update their test scores.

Action/Effective Date

Approved
Summer 2017

The term "foundational" includes those courses in Reading, Writing, and Mathematics that students might place into. For example, in English, this would include English 099 and 101 but not English 102.
